

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

2014 Preservation Awards

Historic Kansas City is accepting nominations for our annual Preservation Awards. Award categories cover a broad array of preservation issues in order to encourage nominations from a wide range of professionals and disciplines. Students are also encouraged to nominate.

Nominations are due Friday January 30th 2015. The nomination process is very simple—it will just take a few minutes of your time. The awards ceremony will occur on a weeknight at the end of February or early March, details to be announced!

Awards:

Best Adaptive Re-Use: Awarded to a project that is an exemplary example of a creative, innovative and appropriate re-use of a historic structure. The current use of the building must differ from its historical use.

Best Preservation Practices: Awarded to a project that has undergone work in preservation, rehabilitation, restoration or reconstruction. For more information visit www.nps.gov/hps/tps/standguide/

Contemporary Design in a Historic Context: Awarded to a project that displays appropriate and innovative contemporary design in a historic context.

Community Catalyst: Awarded to a project, individual, business or group that has greatly contributed to the reinvestment in or revitalization of a historic neighborhood.

Innovation in Preservation: Awarded to a person, group, project or idea that displays innovation in the field of preservation.

Preservation and Sustainability: Awarded to a building, idea, group, publication, film or other project that goes above and beyond to promote preservation as a green activity.

Richard Nadeau Award: Awarded to an individual or group willing to go the extra mile and be a tireless advocate for preservation. Embodies and embraces the idea that “advocacy is the willingness to annoy people.”

Jane Flynn Award: Awarded to an individual or group whose actions have greatly impacted preservation in Kansas City--has fought a preservation battle, worked tirelessly to preserve a structure or neighborhood, or has promoted preservation through planning and public policy.

George Ehrlich Award: Awarded to a group or individual for an outstanding publication in preservation, history, urban design or a related topic.

Nomination Criteria and Guidelines:

- The individual, group or project must be located in the greater Kansas City area.
- The project must have been completed or the activity must have taken place in the calendar year 2014.
