2012 Preservation Awards

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Awards:

Best Adaptive Re-Use: Awarded to a project that is an exemplary example of a creative, innovative and appropriate re-use of a historic structure. The current use of the building must differ from its historical use.

Best Preservation Practices: Awarded to a project that has undergone work in preservation, rehabilitation, restoration or reconstruction. For more information visit www.nps.gov/hps/tps/standguide/

Contemporary Design in a Historic Context: Awarded to a project that displays appropriate and innovative contemporary design in a historic context.

Community Catalyst: Awarded to a project, individual, business or group that has greatly contributed to the reinvestment in or revitalization of a historic neighborhood.

Innovation in Preservation: Awarded to a person, group, project or idea that displays innovation in the field of preservation.

Preservation and Sustainability: Awarded to a building, idea, group, publication, film or other project that goes above and beyond to promote preservation as a green activity.

Richard Nadeau Award: Awarded to an individual or group willing to go the extra mile and be a tireless advocate for preservation. Embodies and embraces the idea that “advocacy is the willingness to annoy people.”

Jane Flynn Award: Awarded to an individual or group whose actions have greatly impacted preservation in Kansas City--has fought a preservation battle, worked tirelessly to preserve a structure or neighborhood, or has promoted preservation through planning and public policy.

George Ehrlich Award: Awarded to a group or individual for an outstanding publication in preservation, history, urban design or a related topic.

Nomination Criteria and Guidelines:

The individual, group or project must be located in the greater Kansas City area.

The project must have been completed or the activity must have taken place in the calendar year 2012.

HKCF will accept both self-nominations and nominations without the knowledge of the nominee.

Awards may not be given in all categories and, in special cases, more than one award per category may be made.

Students are encouraged to apply.

Nominations will automatically be considered for all applicable categories.
